Widowed, Scarlett Marks live changed when her financial manager disappeared with her money. In desperate need of a job, she accepts the only offer she receives; a job with the Call Me Agency whose business is phone sex. In a world she didn't know existed, the timid woman grows into a person she didn't know she had inside her. In the process, she meets Finn Yates, a younger man her co-workers dub a "boy toy".

Does Scarlett have what it takes to be a cougar when everything she's ever believed about love, marriage, and cradle robbing are firmly entrenched into her very being? Can Scarlett overcome her prejudices to find a Boy Toy of her very own?
